About me: Renée knows Miami + knows it well. After all, she has lived, learned, worked here for 40+ yrs, observing it mature + come full circle. She grew up in Surfside; moved to Bay Harbor after studying at the University of Maryland; and worked in Downtown Miami as a senior analyst at Greenberg Traurig. “Growing up + living here for years has loaded me with firsthand knowledge, enabling me to unearth the perfect home + field all sorts of questions about this magical metropolis that is like no other

General Information

Title: Living Is Easy At 7A, Royal Embassy
Description: Unit 7A is your sophisticated, luxurious and expansive waterfront retreat at the Royal Embassy, a mid-century landmark condo tower designed by the renowned architect, Morris Lapidus. The structure sits on one of Miami Beach's most fascinating glamorous, and well-heeled urban corridors called "Millionaire's Row;" and is a short stroll away from the Chabad House of mid-Miami Beach and a longer stroll to several other synagogues, including Beth Israel Congregation, Ohr Chaim Congregation, Shaare Ezra Sephardic Congregation + Temple Beth Shalom.

A new masterpiece of design and craftsmanship, featuring a wide-open floor plan, 2 sizeable bedrooms, 2 stylishly designed full baths, one with a Jacuzzi soaking tub for indulging in relaxing moments, a contemporary kitchen filled with modern and transitional styles, versatile + elegant wood floors and porcelain floor tiles throughout, a wrap-around balcony for gazing at the Atlantic Ocean and Indian Creek while the "ships come in," and lustrous impact glass doors + windows enveloping the tastefully designed interior with the art collector in mind.

Unit 7A is a perfect residence or retreat for the individual seeking life, work, and leisure along the dramatic stretch of Collins Avenue, bounded to the east by the dazzling waters of the Atlantic Ocean and to the west by the tranquility of Indian Creek.

You will not believe it when you see it!
